PROFILE

I'm a UI/UX designer and frontend developer who blends creativity with logic. With skills in both design and code, I create clear, user-focused solutions, whether it's wireframing in Figma or optimizing a landing page.

At BCIT, I've worked on projects involving SEO, digital content, and campaign planning. I'm familiar with tools like Google Ads, WordPress, and Trello, and I'm eager to grow through real client-facing experience.
